How to reject and delete cookies

Most web browsers automatically accept cookies. However, you do not have to accept cookies and you can, should you choose at any time, reject or block the use of cookies and delete all cookies currently stored on your device.

You can find out how to do this for your particular browser by clicking "help" on your browser's menu, or by visiting: www.allaboutcookies.org. For example, in Internet Explorer you can delete cookies by selecting "Tools/Internet Options", clicking on "Delete" in the Browsing History section and then selecting "Delete cookies". Options to accept, block, or require notification for the use of cookies are found under: "Tools/Internet Options/Privacy/Advanced".

For information on how to reject or delete cookies on the browser of your mobile device you may need to refer to the device's manual.

Please be aware however that if you chose to block cookies you may not be able to access certain features of this web site.
